

Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a blatant example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is an absurd misuse of their power.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process should require more scrutiny. Thank you.